Description	Fascinating golf course immersed in a splendid park of oaks extending from hills to Trebbia river. The course was created in 1976 with 9 holes designed by Buratti: some time later, the architect Croze completed the course adding 9 more holes to the original path. This golf course was the first Italian venue for Women's Golf Open in 1987 as the course is easy-playing and fluid, though hard to win in the first round.
