

Name	MASANA CASTLE
Location	carpaneto-piacentino
Address	Loc. Masana di Carpaneto
Description	The building recalls an anecdote regarding Piacenzas bishop, Mons. Antonio Ranza: in May 1860 he retreated in Travazzano Castle, in order not to be obliged to celebrate solemn religious rites for Vittorio Emanuele 2nd's visit to Piacenza; therefore he was taken, disguised, to Masana castle to avoid his arrest. The only remainder of the original fortress, presently used as rural house, is one of the four towers.
How to get there	Trunk Road to Veleia up to Ciriano di Carpaneto. From here follow directions for Travazzano - Magnano.
Opening times	Visible only from the outside
