

Name	THE INSTITUTION PALACE
Location	grazzano-visconti
Address	P.zza del Biscione,
Description	The Institution Palace, former seat of the School of Arts and Crafts, is in the Snake Square. The palace was built at two different times: the backward part dates back to 1908, while the jutting part dates back to 1930. It has a large porch delimited by 4 lancet arches and two balconies, a clock tower and a ghibelline crenellation in the upper part. The external façades are decorated by a bas-relief representing Gian Galeazzo Visconti and by a marble memorial tablet commemorating the wedding between Anna Visconti di Modrone and Adolfo Caracciolo di Castagneto; under the arcades an imposing painting represents Giuseppe Visconti di Modrone's family IT CAN BE SEEN ONLY FROM OUTSIDE .THE BUILDING IS NO LONGER HEADOFFICE OF THE ART AND CRAFTS SCHOOL , BUT OF THE INTERNATIONAL MUSEUM OF TORTURE.
How to get there	A1 exit:Piacenza sud A21 exit Piacenza est Drive along the ring road towards Bettola, after 4 km take Strada Provinciale Val Nure n°654 up to the 14th Km. 2 large car parks available, accessible to the disabled